

Our service promise to you

Welcome to St. Clair College! St. Clair College is the place to start your journey in pursuit of your career and lifelong learning. It is where you will learn new things, expand your mind, create lasting friendships, experience college life and, most importantly, get the skills and knowledge you need to get the job!

St. Clair provides services for 14,300 full-time students and 15,000 part time learners, who participate in over 100 advanced diplomas, diplomas, degrees and graduate certificates focused in Health, Technology, Business, Media Arts and Social Services as well as evening, weekend and e-campus classes.

The College provides access to programs and services you want and need through respectful, flexible and personalized service. We are committed to achieving the highest standards of service delivery, putting you and your needs at the centre of everything we do.

This Service Charter sets out what you can expect across the full range of services we provide at the College. We are accountable to you. We will monitor our performance against these service commitments and will publish our results annually. Should you wish to comment on the service standards set out here or should you have any suggestions about how we can improve our performance in any area, please let us know.

Our Service Commitment/Pledge:

St. Clair College embraces the very best in a college education - excellence in teaching, applied learning in our state-of-the-art labs, numerous student support services to help you succeed, and an amazing campus life experience. We value our contribution to the communities of Windsor Essex and Chatham-Kent as well as the Province of Ontario, the rest of Canada and globally. We are proud of our reputation for excellence - excellence in the programs we deliver, the quality of service we offer our students and community, and the results we achieve. While providing service to you, we are guided by the following five key principles:

1. You will find our staff to be caring, respectful, courteous, helpful and considerate at all times, guided by their professional service ethics.
2. We respect your time, and strive to be available when and where you need. We know that your time is valuable, so we work hard to serve you as quickly as possible, which includes accommodation for special needs.
3. You are at the centre of everything we do. We listen to what you tell us and provide service in collaboration and in consultation with you. Recognizing the diverse needs of our users, we always provide information in a clear and concise manner.

4. You can count on our College and our competent staff to have the most accurate, up-to-date and relevant knowledge, information and resources to help you get what you need. You can count on us to listen carefully to your needs and questions, and guide you through the process of getting the services you require, from start to finish.
5. We are accountable to you. We monitor our results and adjust our services continuously to ensure that you are getting the service you deserve. We respect your right to privacy and value the trust you place in us.
